

Native Finnish and Danish Wanted

Contributed by Team Scandi-jobs.com

Company

An international customer care organisation for travel related services.

Atmosphere can be typified as young and multicultural.

Communication lines are open and direct. The working atmosphere is a relaxed one, but all employees are committed to achieve the best results.

Job Description

For an International Airline Company in Amsterdam we are looking for reservation agents who are native Finnish or Danish speakers and also speak fluent English.

Your Tasks:

Answering questions concerning reservations and tickets

Handling customer complaints

Job Requirements

- Native Finnish or Danish
- Fluent in English and preferably one other Western European Language
- Experience in tourism and/or callcenter
- Living in the Amsterdam Area
- No problems working in shifts

Salary and Benefits

EUR 1520,- gross a month based on a 40 hours working week;

A paid training and travel expenses

Irregularity compensation

A contract directly with the company;

Excellent secondary benefits (two free tickets a year, pension scheme, company fitness, christmas bonus)

If you are interested and match the requirements, please respond by sending us your resume.

!! Please note that we will only contact you if you live in The Netherlands and meet the requirements !!