

NATIVE SCANDINAVIAN SALES - DEN BOSCH

Contributed by Team Scandi-jobs.com

As a sales representative you will be responsible for one or more product lines in certain parts of a continent. You will be responsible for the sales of memory, flash modules and multimedia solutions to distributors, PC-fabricants and retailers. About 20% of your time you will visit (potential) clients abroad.

For this position we are looking for people with 2 or 3 years of sales experience preferably in the computer sector and have a good knowledge and experience PC hardware. You have a high level of English and native Scandinavian. You're willing to travel abroad to meet clients if necessary. Problem-solving mindset and good communication skills are essential.

What is in it for you ?

- A competitive salary and bonus
- Training and personal development
- Good stimulating work environment
- Travel allowance
- Collective insurance
- Minimum 25 days annual leave per year
- 8% holiday money
- Career possibilities
- Sickness pay

This function gives you lots of freedom in an informal atmosphere and excellent opportunities to grow within the company.

Are you somebody who is result driven, analytical and likes to work in a multicultural environment with lots of diversity ?
Are you somebody who knows how to set up and maintain relationships with clients ?